VOL. 79 NO. 11 | CANYON, TEXAS | THURSDAY, JUNE 12, 1975 | 12 PAGES | 15 CENTS

As 10th season opener draws near

Dogs, tickets, odd queries part of 'TEXAS' box office frenzy

"No," a nearly incredulous yet polite college girl clad in bandana-motif Western style dress told the caller with Eastern accent, "there is no danger from Indians or wild beasts."

"No," another said softly into the telephone mouthpiece, "it's not a movie."

The questions are fast and furious and not altogether relevant as the "TEXAS" box office crew begins its last week before opening night.

The subject of discussion is the nationally-popular and acclaimed musical-drama which puts dancers, singers, horses and simulated Indians on the floor of Palo Duro Canyon against a backdrop of mesquite and cactus-strewn red dirt canyon wall.

Nearly a dozen coeds man the telephones eight hours a day at the show's box office in Canyon, fielding questions from throughout the country.

With the record-breaking attendance of the Paul Green drama of Panhandle life in the late 1800s, it is possible—although far-fetched—that the box office staffers field as many as 60,000 telephone calls a season.

Probably the number is far fewer, as another set of staff members pore frantically through hundreds of letters to sort out reservation requests.

But, whatever the actual number, the average box office day is hectic at best.

Box office frenzy has been mitigated somewhat this year as the "TEXAS" business office expanded, leaving more than the previously available 7-foot by 3-foot space for the girls to take calls and answer questions and fill out reservation materials.

Each seat in the outdoor Pioneer Amphitheatre is filled by reservation, and each call for a seat is a unique encounter for the box office crew.

"I'm sorry, ma'm," one staffer apologizes, "but we cannot make your reservation until we know which night you wish to come."

"Unfortunately," says another, "the seats next to yours were sold several weeks ago, and we cannot give you two more next to yours. We shall place the new ones as close to your party as possible."

Pause.

"No, we can't call the other party and ask him to sell his tickets back and relocate him."

Or, with the capricious Panhandle weather always a factor: "Even if your little boy does like to know in advance by several hours whether or not he will be able to see the show, we can't decide now. It is not possible for us to decide at noon whether or not it will rain out a performance. Many of our rains are short evening showers. We have only cancelled 12 shows in nine years."

Or, with the capriciousness of man: "No. We cannot allow dogs in the theatre no matter how well

Rainfall slows start on record harvest

What could be a record Randall County wheat harvest got off to a slow and soggy start this week as most areas of the county reported more than an inch of moisture from two early week showers.

Only in isolated areas, particularly to the east of Canyon, had farmers actually taken to their mature fields to begin reaping the crop, but their work came to a halt late Monday when just about an inch of rain fell during the evening hours.

Farmers sat out Tuesday, also, and then another rain further delayed efforts that night as another about .10 inch of rain fell.

While no hail damage was reported from either the Monday or the Tuesday night storms, a small portion of the county crop was damaged severely by large hailstones last week end.

Randall County Agent John Brazzil reported Monday that moisture content in the wheat was reaching the right stage on dryland wheat and he had predicted that by the end of this week the majority of farmers would be harvesting.

His prediction is delayed, though, by the rains which dampened fields and it may be next week for most farmers before the harvest gets in full swing.

Irrigated wheat, which grows on about 35,000 acres here, is not expected to be ready for the knife before next week end.

Initial reports from those who made it into the fields Monday indicated the yields will be good this year, although probably not as good as in the record year of 1973 when some dryland farmers reported as many as 35 bushels per acre.

Brazzil said first reports indicate dryland wheat this year could produce between 20 and 25 bushels per acre on the average.

There are no accurate estimates on how many acres have been planted in wheat for this year's crop, but reports indicate the acreage is far above that planted in 1973, when the wheat crop meant $12 million to county farmers.

For a handful of farmers, the weather harvested their grain.

A bombastic lightning and hailstorm during the early evening Saturday levelled maturing wheat particularly in an area just to the west of the U.S. 87 eastward to Washington Street and from McCormick Road north about a mile.

Some damage was reported to mobile homes and other structures in the area around McCormick road north of Canyon.

Apparently no other areas of the county have had hail damage this year.

Brazzil reported that wheat prices are holding around the $3 figure.

He said the harvest has virtually been completed to the southeast of Randall County and prices have held steadily at about the $3 level.

Monday night rains were apparently spread generally over the county.

Canyon weather observors reported the city received .72 inches. Happy received a trace of moisture. Umbarger reported .79 inches. Areas to the northeast of Canyon reported about an inch of rain. The far northeast corner of the county reported about .40 inches.

Canyon received .16 inches of rain Tuesday night.

Some Randall County farmers got an early start on this year's wheat harvest Monday, but others were caught by rains Monday night and Tuesday night and will have to wait until fields can dry before the harvest can get fully underway. Only a small portion of the wheat in the county has yet been cut.

The second edition of the Canyon commemorative medallions is displayed by John Childs, chairman of the sales drive for the coins, and local Cowboy Artist Jim Ward, who designed the medallions. This year's issue depicts the 10th anniversary of the musical-drama "TEXAS," which plays each summer in Palo Duro Canyon State Park. Childs shows with large drawing what the coins look like.

University officials mum on charge that Caballero forced to resign

West Texas State University officials were mum this week on whether Dr. Emilio Caballero was forced to resign as chairman of the art department.

"I have no comment at all," said Dr. Lloyd I. Watkins, university president.

"Because the board (of regents) has set up a committee and decided how they want to handle it, it would be inappropriate for me to comment on the case," he said.

"I have no comment," said Dr. Ray Malzahn, academic vice president. "My specific reason for not making any comment is that it is neither professional nor ethical to discuss personnel matters publicly."

Malzahn said he feels bound to that position even though Caballero asked in public session last Friday before the university's board of regents that the charges against him in connection with his alleged resignation be made public.

"I feel I'm still bound if that's the case, even if he wants disclosure," Malzahn said. "I would still have the same obligation to the individual I've always had as to whether it's ethical and professional regardless of action on anybody else's part."

Malzahn said it is up to the board of regents to consider Caballero's case and is not up to the public.

"The decision is to be made on facts, not popular vote," he said. "It's not really up to the public to make the judgements. It's the administrators and the board responsibility for making the decision."

University Regent Don Curry, a Fort Worth attorney, called for full disclosure on the facts regarding the resignation of Caballero during an interview last Saturday with The News.

Caballero had made a similar bid through his Amarillo attorney, George Whittenburg, last Friday when regents met on the Canyon campus.

He had also called for full disclosure of the facts in his case in a recent News interview published last Thursday.

Caballero has contended, both in News interviews and in a letter to the regents read Friday, that he was forced to resign his position as chairman of the art department, a position he had held 20 years.

He claims he was never given substantial reasons by administrators for the forced resignation.

Caballero submitted a letter of resignation to Watkins last January. The following month, university regents went into a 2½ hour executive session and returned to public session to accept Caballero's resignation with a split vote.

The regents reopened their action last Friday when they heard five Panhandle area residents plead for reinstatement of Caballero as chairman of the department, and received petitions allegedly bearing 2,000 signatures.

Whittenburg also presented a letter from Caballero withdrawing the original resignation and demanding that the charges against him be placed in the open.

The regents voted to form a three-man committee to seek an attorney general's opinion on the status of the resignation.

Second Canyon coin is available

A second commemorative coin commissioned by the Canyon Chamber of Commerce and featuring the 10th anniversary of the drama "TEXAS," is now on sale.

Canyon cowboy artist Jim Ward designed the scenes for this year's medallion, which includes on one side the famous lighthouse rock formation in Palo Duro Canyon State Park.

John Childs, who is heading the sales drive for the medal for the chamber, said the newly-minted coins are available for inspection at the chamber office or at the First National Bank.

The coins have been minted in 24 karat gold plate on .999 fine silver, in .999 fine silver, and in antiqued bronze.

In addition, the coins may be purchased in sets of three or in sets of two.

A limited number of each finished coin is available in numbered sequence.

The chamber this year will also sell ladies plain bronze coin pendants and fancy bronze coin pendants.

Childs said those who purchased the first edition medallions in numbered sequence are entitled to purchase the new second edition medallions in the same series number as the original. The option may be taken advantage of until Monday.

Chamber officials will sell the medallions in a special sale Tuesday night at the official opening night of the musical drama for which the coins were designed.

The new side of the coins feature a horseman holding a Texas flag and note the 10th anniversary season of "TEXAS," which plays nightly except Sundays in Palo Duro Canyon Pioneer Amphitheatre through Aug. 23.

Each gold plated coin in the edition is priced at $50. Silver coins are priced at $20 each and the antiqued bronze medals with serial numbers are priced at $4 each. A three medal set, which includes one of each finish, costs $100 while a two-medal set with a

Social Security changes could impact on county

A possible change in the national Social Security law has at least one local governmental entity worried.

County Judge Woody Pond said this week he has written letters of protest to Texas' two Senators and several Congressmen complaining of a proposed change which would mandate that an employee's social security payments be paid to the U. S. Treasury on a monthly rather than a quarterly basis.

Pond said the change could cost the county about $500 per year in interest lost on the funds set aside each month from each employee's paycheck to go to the Social Security system.

Pond said the county invests the funds put aside from the paychecks each month and earns interests on those funds. The interest goes into the county treasury.

U. S. Rep. Jack Hightower corresponded with Pond this week on the problem and said he backs an amendment to the proposed change which would in effect leave the collection period at the current quarterly rate.

While the change in legislation could affect the county, other governmental leaders here said the change would probably have no effect on them.

City Manager Glen Metcalf said the loss of interest would be negligible if the reporting and payment period were changed to the monthly basis.

Ronnie Woods, business manager for the Canyon Independent School District, said the social security funds for school employees are not invested and therefore draw no substantial interest.

Hermas Miller, financial vice president at West Texas State University, said only a minimal amount of interest would be lost at the university due to the change. He said the bulk of the university's social security money is paid through the State

Discrepancies noted in stories on resignation of Caballero

By CARROLL WILSON

From all outward appearances last February, Dr. Emilio Caballero resigned voluntarily from his position as chairman of the West Texas State University art department.

News releases and news stories published in local and area newspapers indicated he was not only resigning voluntarily but was happy to do so.

Four months later, Caballero has withdrawn his original letter of resignation and demands that university administrators tell the public why they forced him to submit the original letter.

Why the discrepancy?

Official statements made by administrators in February indicated the resignation was voluntary.

Now, the administrators have no comment on the Caballero resignation.

Why the discrepancy?

In early February, the University News Service, an administrative arm of the college to disburse WTSU news to area media, sent out a press release in which President Lloyd Watkins announced the pending resignation of Caballero.

Watkins is quoted in the press release as saying: "After many years as chairman of the Art Department, Dr. Caballero has asked to be relieved of his administrative burdens in order that he may return to full-time teaching and painting. We are proud of this outstanding artist and teacher, and all of us are deeply indebted to him for the fine work he has accomplished as chairman of the Art Department. I understand his desire, however, and will accede to his wishes. He will be missed as chairman."

The same news release contained this quote, obtained by the university news service, from Dr. John Green, dean of the School of Fine Arts concerning "the many noteworthy accomplishments of the department attributable to Dr. Caballero's dedicated efforts while heading up the program."

Judy Tolk, university editor and head of the news service on campus, said Mrs. Mary Haraden, a reporter on her staff, wrote the story which went to news media concerning the resignation of Caballero.

But, she said Caballero told her personally the proposed story was "a fine article."

Caballero approved the story before it was sent to area newspapers, she said.

Mrs. Haraden, a student on campus, refused to comment on the story, however, when contacted at her home Monday.

"I did talk to Dr. Caballero but I'm not at liberty to say what Dr. Caballero said," she said.

Mrs. Haraden would not say why she could not comment on her story.

Miss Tolk, contacted later Monday, also declined any further comment on the Caballero resignation, saying she had been advised by University Legal Counsel Karen Johnson to remain silent on the

Kiwanians offer service on flags to residents

Local Kiwanians want to make Canyon the "flag-flyingest" city in the country.

So, now they're offering their flag service, previously handled only for downtown businesses, to local homeowners.

Dr. Hollice Snyder, chairman of the project, said the club is offering to extend its standing offer to erect a flag on each appropriate day during the year in front of local homes for a fee of $15 per year.

The extension of the service is undertaken in conjunction with the approaching American Bi-Centennial Anniversary.

"In addition to providing an individualized display of national patriotism, the project will provide support for a growing youth activity in our city," Snyder said.

For several years, the Kiwanis Club has contracted with Canyon businesses to erect the national flag at the businesses on seven to 10 national holidays.

Wilson Named For National Honor

Dr. Kenneth Wilson, West Texas State University associate professor of agriculture, has been named the national Teacher Fellow by the National Associate of Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture.

Wilson will travel to Fresno, Calif. to be honored at the national convention of NACTA June 17. He will be the only one receiving this award.

"Dr. Wilson is a very dedicated teacher," notes Agriculture Dean Charles Smallwood, "particularly in providing outstanding laboratories for his classes. He has been recognized two times by our agriculture honorary society as the outstanding instructor in agriculture."

Treasury.

Ray Grimes, administrator of Palo Duro Hospital, said the hospital does not invest the social security funds from employee paychecks and would therefore not be affected by the change.

Pond said the change in law might also affect local businessmen who are required to withhold social security tax as from employee paychecks.

Flags. . .

The cost for the service is $15 per year. For the fee, Kiwanians provide a pipe flag holder and will place it in a suitable location on residential property. Then, each holiday they will place a flag in the holder.

The club began its campaign to cover the residential areas of the city with flags several weeks ago through a letter to about 350 home-owners, Snyder said, and now wishes to extend the service to all residences. Already, the service has been contracted for about 40 homes outside the business district.

Funds generated by the project support a variety of service programs for the club, Snyder said. One project is the sponsorship of girls' softball teams. The Kiwanis Club furnishes equipment and a maintains a playing field in southeast Canyon. They hope funds can be raised to provide lighting for the field.

Those interested in obtaining the flag service should contact Snyder at 655-3404 or Roland Black, manager of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, at the chamber office.

A Hereford man was killed Saturday when the car he was driving ran off the road and into an embankment approximately five miles north of Umbarger on FM 168. Dead on arrival at Northwest Texas Hospital was Rodney Dale Herr, 24. The crash occurred at approximately 3:15 p.m.

subject.

Late Tuesday, Miss Johnson told The News she had advised against comment due to the possibility of pending litigation on the matter, but would withdraw that advise as it applied to Mrs. Haraden.

While the Amarillo newspaper in February published substantially the same article sent out by the university news service, that paper's story on the Caballero resignation contained two direct quotes from Caballero himself.

The Amarillo paper quoted Caballero as saying, "I have been in the administrative end of the art department for the past 20 years. The duties of administration have become more pressing all the time and its problems are less creative. I simply wanted to go back to teaching."

Last Thursday, Caballero charged for the first time publicly that he had been forced into handing in a resignation as chairman. He also asked that the reasons for the administrative decision to ask him to resign be made public.

The charge was repeated to university regents during their meeting on campus Friday.

In a News interview Monday, Caballero said he complied with administrative requests for his resignation last January and made it appear that he was accepting the resignation with good will because "I just didn't want to fight. I didn't want to cause the university any turmoil."

Caballero said he had been pressured to turn in a letter of resignation since August or September 1974 when he had been initially approached for such a letter by Dr. Green.

He said he refused to submit such a letter during August or September, but was harrassed and pressured by the administration through January when he finally did submit such a letter.

It was just after a School of Fine Arts department head meeting that Caballero says Dr. Green called him aside to ask again for a letter of resignation.

Caballero quotes Dr. Green as saying: "I'm going to have to ask you to write a letter relinquishing the department headship and if you don't I"ll have to write a letter requesting that."

Caballero said he felt a threat was implied in the repeated requests for his resignation.

He said Green told him Dr. Watkins and Dr. Ray Malzahn, academic vice president, concurred in the demand for the resignation.

Caballero said he pondered the demand for about two days, during which he was called and visited by Green to see if he had finished the letter, and finally penned the letter to Dr. Watkins.

The long-time professor said he was prompted to reveal what he said he believes to be the true facts of his resignation after hundreds of letters began pouring into his mailbox and to university regents and other officials asking that he be reinstated as chairman.

"People began asking why I'd resigned and I had a moral responsibility to explain the whole story and that's why I did it," he said. "People came to my support and I felt I owed it to them to reveal the truth."

University administrators refuse to comment on the Caballero resignation. Neither Malzahn nor Watkins would comment on whether Caballero was forced to resign and, if so, why.

"No deposit is necessary," one coed says into the phone. "We shall hold your tickets until 7:30 the day of your reservation. If they haven't been picked up by then we shall have to release them for sale."

"The price of the barbecue (which is served before each performance) is $2.60 for adults and $1.50 for children," says another. "No reservations for the meal are not necessary."

"Yes," says another, "there is excellent camping in the canyon."

"Yes, all seats are reserved."

"Yes, the parking is free."

gold and a silver coin costs $75.

Unnumbered antiqued bronze medallions will be $2.50 each. The ladies plain bronze pendant is priced for $6 while the fancy pendant is $8.

Childs said additional coins remain from last summer's first issue of the Palo Duro series. The original issue commemorated the Texas cattle country and featured longhorn cattle and a horseman on one side of the coins.

Funds raised through the sale of the coins goes into an account to help defray expenses for production of next year's series and also for chamber activities.

Citizen Of The Year Picked

Umbarger News

By REBA RAEF

THE CITIZEN OF the year award was presented to Mrs. Jim (Shirley) Skarke at the meeting of the Umbarger Community Association held Wednesday evening, June 4th. E.A. Stocker, president, made the presentation. Shirley is the mother of six children, is active in St. Mary's Altar Society, teaches religion on Sunday, takes part in school activities, does much of her own sewing and still finds time to help those less fortunate than she. Our congratulations to Shirley and her family.

The Association made tentative plans for a picnic in August. The plans will be completed at the July meeting. Plans for a tennis court were also discussed and Mrs. Marion Hicks was asked to check into the possibilities.

The two new board members are Leonard Batenhorst and Vincent Ramaekers.

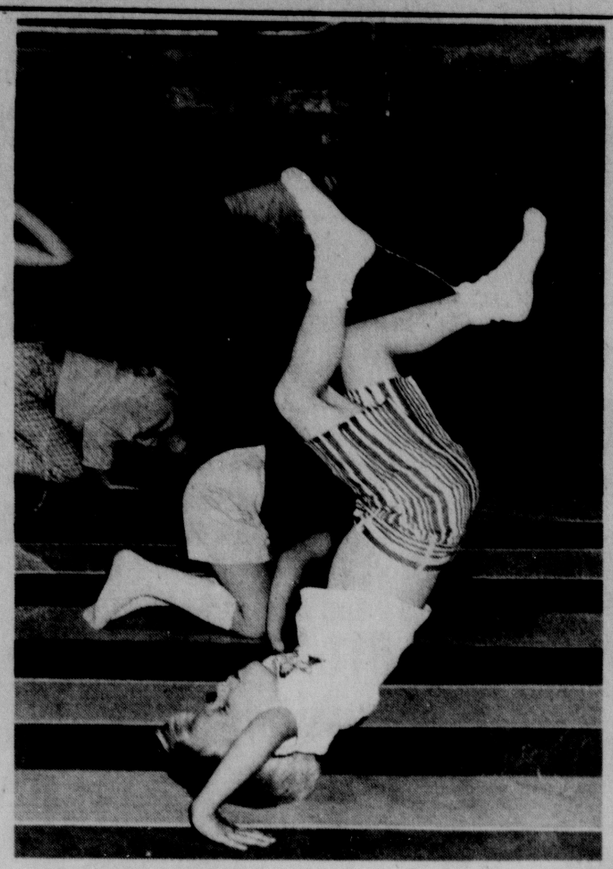
Monte Staton, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ross Staton of Canyon gives his full concentration to sanding a wood object he's making for Father's Day. Young Staton is one of about 200 children enjoying the offerings this summer of the Canyon Summer Recreation Program, sponsored by the City of Canyon and West Texas State University.

His hair flying, Randy McDowell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McDowell of Canyon, comes down only to go back up again during a trampoline class held as part of the Canyon Summer Recreation Program this summer. More than 200 youngsters are participating in the various activities.



Richard Carlson, son of Mrs. Joan Carlson of Canyon, is caught in mid-air during a tumbling class in the Canyon Summer Recreation Program at the West Texas State University activities center. Hundreds of local youngsters are participating in everything from tumbling to swimming in the program.

Bridal Shower Honors Couple

Miss Janna Johnson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roland Johnson, 1124 Hillcrest, and bride-elect of Mike Wartes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Wartes of Hereford, was honored with a miscellaneous shower Sunday afternoon, June 8, from 1:30 to 3:30, in the home of Mrs. Phillip Langen, 1101 Brookhaven.

The bride-elect's colors of sky blue and white were carried out in the floral decorations. A silver candelabrum containing blue and white daisies, carnations, and roses surrounding five white candles centered the table covered with a white knit cloth. Punch, cookies and nuts were served.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Langen, Mrs. Johnson, Janna, and Mrs. Wartes. At the bride's book was Mrs. Ronnie Wooten of Brownfield, sister of the bride-elect. Serving at the table were Misses Roma Johnson, sister of the bride-elect, and Susan Wartes, sister of the groom.

Assisting Mrs. Langes with hostess duties were Mrs. Lynn Blewett, Mrs. Genelle Bourland, Mrs. D.A. Brown, Mrs. Ocie Chims, Mrs. Virginia Cotton, Mrs. R. Crews Henry, Mrs. R.D. Killingsworth, Mrs. Georgia Lee, Mrs. Paul Lindsey, Mrs. R.T. (Bob) Lindsey, Mrs. J. Edwin Low, Mrs. Gene McGlasson, Mrs. E.B. Posey, Mrs. Raymond Raillard, Mrs. Weldon Trice, Mrs. Jim Westfall, and Dr. Hellon Wilbur.

Approximately 100 guests called.

The wedding is set for July 19, 1975, at Calvary Baptist Church in Canyon, at 8 p.m. Dr. Strauss Atkinson of Plainview, former pastor of First Baptist Church, Canyon, is the officiating minister.

Buy plenty of eggs while they are on special — then freeze the extras, but don't just place the eggs in the freezer without following a few rules on the proper freezing techniques for eggs.

To successfully freeze eggs, break the shell and blend whites and yolks together. Add ¼ teaspoon of sugar or salt per egg to prevent thick and gummy eggs when thawed. Cover the freezing container tightly before placing into freezer.

If preferred, the yolks and whites may be frozen separately. When freezing separately the egg yolks will need to have sugar or salt added as instructed previously but the egg whites, frozen separately, will not require any extra ingredients to maintain quality during freezing.

TEXAS TALK

By Tom Lytle

Thickening the spread thins the profit. "Spread" is the farm-retail spread, i.e., the difference in what consumers pay and farmers receive for agricultural products. "Thickening" is the unusual increase the "spread" has gone through in the past year. In January of 1974, farmers received 46 cents of a market basket dollar . . . by December their share was down to 41 . . . this year the figure could be less than 40. Growth of the "spread" is causing officials to launch specific investigations into agricultural marketing and distribution systems. Suggestions are being made to locate processing plants closer to the producer, to increase efficiency in food transportation, to locate major supermarkets in central-city areas and to take a second look at effects of labor unions. Success in shrinking the "spread" will work well for everyone. The producer will get a larger share of the money spent and the consumer will receive more product for his food dollar.

McDonald's "Dormitory:" "A House By the Side of the Road"

By CLAUDIA STRAVATO

Across the street from the campus of West Texas State University, at 2601 Fourth, are two houses. One is an adobe two room house built from the dirt it sits on. The other is an eight bedroom home.

Mary and Bryan McDonald started their married life in 1925 in the two room adobe house, and later moved away to Ozona, Texas. In 1944 they moved back to Canyon and into the eight bedroom home that had formerly been the old First Presbyterian Church.

Both the homes on Fourth belonged to "Mac's" father, C.F. Kerr, a former Judge in Castro County and a realtor in Canyon until his death.

It is somehow appropriate that the McDonalds live so near the college for their lives have been inextricably tied to it.

Mary and "Mac" were both students at WT when they met in 1920. Mary was the first pep leader and "Mac" was on the football team. He is still a Buffalo supporter and a member of the "T-Club."

"Mother Mac," as she is called by her five children, and "Mac" have retained their close ties to WT over the years. All their children graduated from WT except the youngest, Don, who graduated from Texas A&I. And, as the children left home, the McDonalds filled their rooms with students on low budget incomes or "problem students."

The McDonalds have boarded about four students a year since 1946. In many instances, the students could not have gone to school except for the McDonald's "low room and board." Over 100 "foster" children have lived at the McDonald's over the years.

The "McDonald dormitory" was established when oldest son Charles, and several other football players, lost their scholarships for hazing a freshman. Faced with having to leave school for lack of funds, Charles brought the boys home, "bag and baggage." "Mother Mac" made room for the boys and thereby started the "McDonald dormitory."

The only time students are not at the McDonald residence is in the summer when the home is devoted to the fourteen grandchildren, one great-grandchild, and some of their 100 plus "foster" children, who are "always dropping by."

Also the child of a judge, Mary Davidson McDonald, was born and raised in Ozona, in Crockett County. Her father, Judge Charles E. Davidson, organized the county and was its judge until his death in 1888.

Sent to WT to get her teaching certificate, Mrs. McDonald fondly recalls that it was at WT that she met "Mac." Not only was he a football player, but he sang in the choir and played jazz piano by ear. "The girls in the dorm always wanted to hear him play, so we were always late to the show." Mrs. McDonald said.

"Mac" has continued to play over the years, entertaining his own children for hours and later his "foster" children. The McDonalds have a baby grand in their home even today.

When asked what kind of work he had done over the years, the 70-ish "Mac" retorts, "You name it, I've done it." Raised in Dimmitt, "Mac" moved to Ozona after he married Mary where he was a Justice of the Peace for awhile during the depression. Later he was superintendent of water works in Ozona. He has been in the hardware and implement business and also tried his hand as a stock farmer in Hereford.

Both Mary and "Mac" seem to delight in their children, and all the other children they have helped. With pride in their eyes they explain that Charles is now an attorney in Brownwood, Dick, Bill and Pam have all been teachers, and Don, "the baby," is head basketball coach at Texas A&I. "Mother Mac" adds that the football players who lost their scholarships all went on to get their master's degrees.

As one of their children put it, "If ever there was 'A House the Side of the Road,' as Sam W. Foss described in his poem, its location would be found at 2601 Fourth, Canyon, Texas, across the street from the campus of West Texas State University."

Palo Duro Hospital Operates in Black

Palo Duro Hospital operations continue in the black in spite of a lighter-than-usual patient load during May, and the ledger will look even better soon when a $58,000 windfall is received through Medicare, board members were told Monday night.

Directors of the South Randall County Hospital District learned the hospital has had a total net income since February of about $15,000.

And, they were told by Administrator Ray Grimes that an expected $52,000 check can be expected in the near future from Medicare.

The current financial picture of the hospital district was the only item of business on the board agenda Monday night.

Grimes presented figures to show the district's hospital has had a total net revenue of $212,735 from in-patient and out-patient services since the hospital opened its doors in early February. Net revenue for May totalled $53,241.

Expenses for the months since February totalled $197,140 while expenses for May totalled $51,807.

Grimes said Medicare examiners had audited the hospital's books over a recent two-week period and have certified the amount due to the hospital is about $52,000, a sum to which the hospital is entitled due to the change in buildings involved when the new Palo Duro facility was completed.

The privately-owned Neblett Memorial Hospital was vacated in early February when the new hospital was completed.

Bridal Shower Honors Couple

The forthcoming wedding of Miss Billie Sue Clark and Donnie Cummins was recognized with a bridal shower for the couple Friday, May 30th, at the home of Mrs. Stanley Cummins, 1610 Gardenia, Amarillo.

Mrs. James Galloway was hostess for the shower. Receiving guests with Miss Clark and Mrs. Galloway was Mrs. T.W. Thrasher, Miss Clark's grandmother. Twenty-five guests attended the shower.

Refreshments were served by Joyce Cummins, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Stanley Cummins, mother of the groom.

Miss Clark and Mr. Cummins will be married June 14th at 7 p.m. at the North Beacon Nazarene Church in Amarillo.

WT Graduate List Includes Athletes

Panhandle's Ben Bentley, Hereford's Mike Wartes, and El Paso's Charlie Haddad are the top honorees in West Texas State University's latest crop of senior student-athletes.

The three are among 21 Buffs who went through commencement exercises last month, or will complete work on their undergraduate degrees during the current summer session.

"Sometimes it appears student-athletes get more coverage in the news media when they decide not to quit or change schools than when they are doing the job they should," athletic director Gene Mayfield said. "Needless to say, I am quite proud of these young men."

Here is the complete list of graduated seniors:

Basketball: Hector Rodriguez, San Antonio; Larry Jarzombek, San Antonio; Dana Albright, Hutchinson, Kans.; and Howard Taylor, Como, Miss.

The Priscilla Club held a garden party at the home of Mrs. D. Crow, 1300 8th Ave. last Wednesday. Pictured above, left to right, were the hostesses for the event, Mrs. Vida Daugherty, Mrs. Verna Mae Noel, Mrs. Martha Goodman, Mrs. D. Crow and Mrs. Florence Moore. Mrs. Grace Knighton, not pictured, was also a hostess.

FESTIVAL PREVIEW — Mrs. Vaughn Nelson will weave at her four heddle loom as one of the historic exhibits for the July 4 Festival commemorating the Panhandle Centennial. The Festival is a project of the Bi-Centennial Committee and will be held at Conner Park.

Local "Hobby" Weaver To Display Talent at Festival

Beth Nelson has been weaving for four years. "I was so lucky to be in the last weaving class at WT taught by Miss Claudia Neeley, Mrs. Nelson explains. She first became interested in this art form when she and her family lived in South America where her husband Vaughn was teaching.

Mrs. Nelson will display her loom and her weaving skills at the Festival scheduled for Conner Park July 4, commemorating the Panhandle Centennial.

Her loom, a four-heddle Leclerc, made in Canada can make an article 40 inches wide and almost any length. The Nelson home is filled with interesting wall hangings, woven and macrame, which Mrs. Nelson has made in her "spare" time. She is a sixth grade teacher at Rex Reeves Elementary School and has three children, two boys in high school and a recently married daughter in college.

One of her woven wall hangings is in the Amarillo Club atop the American National Bank building. For this rather large hanging Mrs. Nelson built a special frame on which to weave. Other woven works hang in Dallas and San Francisco.

"It takes many hours just to set up a loom before weaving," Mrs. Nelson said, "and there is no way to make a profit from the sale of your work if you count your time," she adds.

Unlike her pioneer ancestors, Mrs. Nelson primarily uses wool yarn whereas pioneer women used a great deal of cotton. Finding it difficult to locate materials for weaving in the immediate area, Mrs. Nelson always picks up extra yarn when she is on trips. The nearest places to get yarn are in old Mexico, Albuquerque, and Oklahoma City. She also uses seed pods and branches in some of her weaving to add contrast and texture.

"Historically, the hand loom was used to make cloth for clothing and blankets, but is now basically considered an art form," Mrs. Nelson said. Mrs. Nelson has plans to build a vertical loom so that she can make Navajo blanket wall hangings.

"Pointing out that she weaves barefooted, Mrs. Nelson said, "I really enjoy weaving and I'm looking forward to demonstrating it on July 4th."

New W.T. Football Coach Has Wide Ranging Experience

One of the newest members of the West Texas State University football coaching staff has a range of experience beginning with junior high all the way to the professional ranks.

Jim Crossland, head coach Gene Mayfield's new defensive coordinator, came to WTSU earlier this year to replace Leon Fuller who went to the University of Wyoming.

Crossland graduated from Oklahoma State University and coached at several Oklahoma high schools before becoming head coach at Eastern Oklahoma A&M in 1960.

From Oklahoma, Crossland went to Texas Western, now University of Texas at El Paso, and served as assistant to Bum Phillips, a one-time Amarillo High coach.

High school coaching positions in Beaumont, Orange and Port Nueches followed Crossland's stint in El Paso.

While working toward his masters degree at Oklahoma State, Crossland coached a small town football team with Jim Spavitol, a former OSU and professional football player.

When the World Football League was formed last year, the Chicago franchise hired Spavitol as the head coach of its Chicago Fire. He then asked Crossland to come to the professional ranks as the team's defensive coordinator.

With what Crossland terms "monumental money and management problems" the Chicago Fire folded the first year.

"The league did a fantastic job of getting teams on the field within one year from the time the idea was first brought up, but they might have gone about it too fast," Crossland said.

"In my opinion, too many games were played the first season. We played a 20-game schedule. I think it would have been best to stop the season at ten or twelve games."

Crossland added that most of the teams were financially sound at the midway point of the 20-game season with the exception of one or two.

Asked his predictions for the second WFL season, Crossland said "there's a need for one league if the public wants it. The law of supply and demand will take care of it one way or the other," he added.

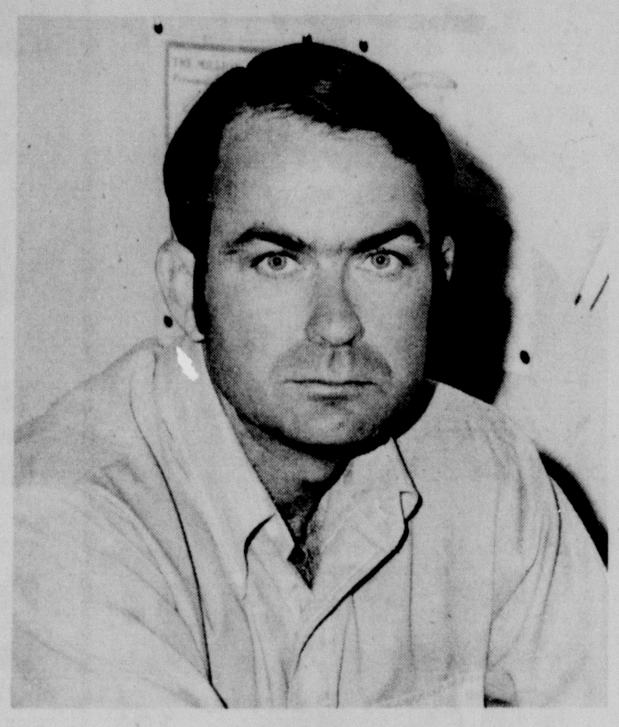
Turning to the present, the new defensive mentor for the WTSU Buffalos is enthusiastic about the upcoming football season.

"I am pleased and honored to be working with a man of Coach Mayfield's background and the winning conditions from last year," Crossland said.

By means of films and spring training, Crossland has had a chance to see some of the players returning from last year's team.

"We have a decent nucleus back from last year but there are some positions that need filling in," he said. "If we can fill these positions and get improvement from those who are returning, we hope to have a good team this fall," Crossland added.

"Spring training wasn't as complete as I would have liked, because we were hampered with injuries, but, with what I've seen and a quality group of freshmen coming in, we should have a good season."



Jim Crossland

Energy Symposium for Area Farmers and Ranchers at W.T.

"Alternative Energy Sources for Rural Operations," a symposium to brief area farmers and ranchers on supplemental energy sources, will be held at West Texas State University June 26. The symposium opens at 9:30 ia.m. in Room 101 of the WTSU Science Center.

Opening the sessions on wind, solar and bioconversion systems for rural operations will be John C. White, commissioner of agriculture for the State of Texas, speaking on "Energy Problems" at 10 a.m.

"Essentially, the symposium is to give farmers and ranchers information on what the possibilities are for alternative energy sources so they can then hopefully develop them for their own needs," said Dr. Vaughn Nelson, head of the WTSU Department of Physics and symposium speaker.

He believes the agricultural industry can benefit from this knowledge because "They are going to be hurting for energy in the future, and, as a matter of fact, already are with the natural gas shortage."

Following Commissioner White's speech will be a talk by Dr. W. A. LePorin of Texas A&M on "Energy Consumption, Conservation and Projected Needs of Texas Agriculture." Dr. Earl Gilmore, who has worked with Nelson on a Panhandle wind energy potential study, will speak on "Wind Energy Potential," followed by Nelson who will discuss "Solar Energy Potential."

Gilmore will return to brief participants on "Energy Program of Energy Research and Development Agency for Agriculture" and "Wind Energy Systems." "Solar Energy: Its Utilization in a Feedlot-Feedmill" will be the topic of Dr. James E. Halligan of Texas Tech University.

After lunch, participants will return to hear Ron Neely of Windsol discuss "Solar Energy Systems," Dr. Robert Barieau of WTSU on "Bioconversion Systems" and Nelson on "Energy Independence for Rural Operations."

Participants of the symposium will be encouraged to come with ideas, questions or suggestions on solar and wind energy and bioconversion for discussion sessions at the end of the meeting.

The talks will last from 10 to 20 minutes each. Registration begins at 9:30 a.m., with a registration fee of $6, which includes lunch and a bibliography of sources and information on alternative energy sources.

Individuals interested in attending the symposium should send their $6 checks, payable to West Texas State University, to Dr. Vaughn Nelson, Department of Physics, Box 248, WT Station, Canyon, Texas 79016.

Local Artist Heads Group

Jim Ward, well known cowboy artist of Canyon, was elected President of the Texas Cowboy Artist Association at their annual meeting in Austin last week at the Villa Capri Motel.

Ward will serve as president for the 75-76 term. Other officers elected included Don Ray of Channing, vice president and Tom Warren of Plainview, secretary-treasurer.

During the annual meeting the new officers met with representatives of Oxmoor Publishers to discuss a forthcoming book "The American Cowboy," by Caleb Pirtle. The book is to be illustrated by members of the Texas Cowboy Artists Association. It is scheduled to be published in October of this year. Promotion activities regarding the book were also discussed.

In other business, the Artist Association discussed the Annual Awards Banquet and Show which is tentatively scheduled for early November in Dallas. Final plans are being formulated.

Donnie Huckerts Have Son

Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Huckert of 5120 S. Travis in Amarillo announce the June 6 birth of a baby boy, Brent Keeley, at Palo Duro Hospital. The baby boy weighed 6 pounds 7½ ounces and measured 19 inches at birth.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Renfro of Hereford, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Huckert also of Hereford.

Local Utility Ordinance Proposed

City Engineer Bill McMorries of McMorries and Associates in Amarillo is now preparing a model ordinance he will propose the Canyon City Commission consider for passage which deals with the regulation of utilities other than the telephone company.

McMorries said the model ordinance will be proposed to the city for passage in light of the recently passed Texas legislation involving the regulation of utilities by a state regulatory commission.

That law, he said, contains several specific items referring to the kinds of expenses and costs which can be considered in determining whether a utility is entitled to an increase in rates for local citizens.

Likewise, he said, it contains other sections which the city should consider implementing since the city remains as the regulatory body for the Pioneer Natural Gas Co. and Southwestern Public Service Co.

The law removed from city jurisdiction and control the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Baptists Conduct VBS

The combined efforts of the First Baptist Church and Calvary Baptist Church in Vacation Bible School have proven quite successful this week with 223 children enrolled.

The school, held at Calvary Baptist Church, is teaching children from three years old to sixth grade, with the largest class containing 48 four- and five-year-olds.

Fifty-five teachers are guiding the school in the theme, "The Church." Darrold Baldwin, Minister of education at First Baptist Church, is serving as principal of the Vacation Bible School.

All the classes are involved in crafts and are taking various field trips.

The Vacation Bible School will conclude Friday with "parents night," at which time the children will receive their certificates and the parents will view their crafts.

Summer School In Full Swing

By KAROLYN FARMER

THE CALENDAR SAYS it's summer — but as I write this column, I'm huddled at the typewriter with a blanket wrapped around me trying to get warm. But I stubbornly refuse to turn the heater on in June. I'll just be patient, and by tomorrow it will probably be 100 degrees in the shade.

SUMMER SCHOOL IS in full swing at Gene Howe and will last until July 11th. Mary Jo Smith is teaching math, aided by Pam Boatright. Gay Cochran is the summer reading teacher and her aide is Anita Harp. Ellen Wilson and Lynn Gill are both teaching LLD classes, assisted by Patty Laramore. The early childhood class is being taught by Davida Emanuel. Jerry Little is teaching speech this summer.

OUR SINCERE SYMPATHIES are extended to Mrs. Dwaine Green and Randy. Mr. Green passed away on Wednesday, June 4th and the funeral was held in Amarillo on June 6th.

Randy has just completed the 6th grade at Gene Howe and plays on the A & S baseball team. Kyle and I and the other boys on the ball team attended the funeral together.

Randy's older brother Steve and his family have been in Amarillo this week. Mrs. Green and Randy plan to return with them to Colorado Springs, Colo. to spend part of the summer.

BOB AND ERICK Robinson joined some friends from Morton, Texas this past weekend for a fishing trip to Ute Lake near Logan, New Mexico. Erick's biggest catch was a two pound channel cat and his father landed a three pound bass.

* * *

CATHY CALL AND April Gibson were two of the soloists this past Sunday in a choir concert at Paramount Baptist Church of Amarillo. The Young Musician's Choir presented the modern musical "Hey God, Listen" for their spring concert.

JERRY AND KATHLEEN Martindale, Mike and Leslie dashed off on their vacation trip as soon as school was out. The Martindales visited Galveston, Dallas and Six Flags.

Mike Martindale, who will be in the 8th grade at C.J.H.S. next fall, is working this summer at his first "real" job. Mike is helping his father out at Mitchell Electric.

RONNIE BAILEY, THE golf pro at Southwest Golf Club, is now a TV celebrity. You may have seen him on several news broadcasts this past week publicizing the Tall Tower Open to be held June 28th and 29th at the Southwest course.

Ronnie, Sue and their children Rhonda, Guy and Mike moved to our area from Tulia two years ago and now make their home at 8110 Coronado. Guy and Mike are following in their dad's footsteps and are also accomplished golfers.

HAROLD AND JANETTE Hale and Jill have also been vacationing already this summer. They left May 30th for Lake Texhoma and Six Flags and also visited Janette's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bledsoe, in Tuttle, Okla. Jill is spending this week visiting with her grandparents.

* * *

GLORIA AND RAYMOND Rawls celebrated their 10th anniversary on Saturday, June 7th. Bob and Judy Trook joined them for dinner to celebrate the occasion.

BILL AND CHARLENE Moore, Rhonda and Gena spent this past week visiting relatives in Fort Worth. They, along with Charlene's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Boyd of Fort Worth, then drove to Bella Vista, Ark. for a few days.

THE FARMER FAMILY is missing two of its members this week. Brenda and Kent left last Saturday for Glorieta, N.M. with a group from First Baptist Church of Amarillo. This is Youth Week at Glorieta and about 2,000 young people were expected to attend.

Kent called us collect this morning to tell us that they had seen a huge bear and were going back out to track it down. (When I get the phone bill, I may get a little "bearish" myself).

THE A&S BASEBALL team has been selling bottles of all-purpose cleanser this week to raise money for the "Y" hardball program. The project is designed so that the boys can earn prizes for selling a certain number of bottles.

Our Carl has really gotten out and beat the bushes and has sold 50 bottles, which earns him a new baseball glove. We don't have the results in yet from the other boys on the team, but I know that several have sold at least 15 bottles and have earned a new baseball.

This type of project is a good experience in salesmanship for our kids and the money made from it will help buy new equipment, etc. for the "Y" hardball program.

Our thanks to all the very nice people in our neighborhood who made purchases.

COACH EURIS PHIPPS has two big reasons to be proud of the 4th grade girls softball team this week. On Tuesday, June 3, they defeated a team from Wolflin School by a score of 35 to 9. On Thursday, June 5, the girls beat the team from South Lawn by 19 to 3.

Nell Phipps is their enthusiastic team mother.

THE 2ND GRADE boys T-ball team has also compiled an impressive record so far this season. They defeated Olsen Park 30 to 27 on Monday, June 2. On Thursday, June 5, the boys played a team from South Lawn and won, 33-27.

In the game against South Lawn, Lynn Vanlandingham made two home runs and Walter Morris got one home run. Royal Yarbrough is the team's coach.

The 4th grade boys softball team has played three games so far. On Tuesday, June 3, they defeated Paramount by 15 to 11. Chris Poole hit a home run and Mike Morgan had a grand slam in that game.

On Friday, June 6, the boys won against South Georgia by 31 to 4. They played a tight game against South Lawn this past Monday and barely lost by a score of 18 to 17. Home run hitters in that game were Kevin Smith and Dwayne Hollis.

Coaches are Larry Brooks, Bob Morgan and Roger Whitehead.

THE A&S HARDBALL team now has a 3-2 record for the season. They lost their game to Ridgecrest but won the game on June 7th against Oakdale by the score of 14 to 9.

JIM AND KAY Riley and Rusty visited friends in Santa Fe, N.M. last weekend. They took in the horse races and did some shopping while in Santa Fe.

HAPPY HOMECOMING HAS been scheduled for October 3, 1975. Special guests will be the 1955 Football team. Honored classes will include the classes of 1915, 1925, 1935, 1945, 1955, 1965 and 1975. The Class of 1925 will be the special Golden Anniversary Class and the Class of 1950 will be Silver Anniversary Class. Mark your calendars and make plans to attend. Those who live close especially need to attend Homecoming. Nothing is so disheartening as to drive miles to Homecoming only to find that those from the immediate area didn't make the effort to be present.

CATHY PARKER WON third in the State 4-H Food Show last week at Texas A & M. Cathy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Parker and the granddaughter of Mrs. J.O. Parker and Mrs. Oma Lee Lowry. Congratulations.

Ronnie McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob McDonald, and Jim Bob Burnett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ed Burnett, won fifth in their demonstration of Agronomy.

Tim Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Parker, and Russell Bowman, won fifth in their demonstration on horses.

Nancy Woods, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Woods, and Pearl Perez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amadeo Perez, won sixth in their demonstration on safety. Kim McCaslin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCaslin, and Becky Stubblefield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Stubblefield, presented a demonstration on Family Life Educational Activity. Neal Odom was on the District II Horse Judging team. Brenda Parker, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Foster Parker was a participant in the demonstrations on Food and Nutrition.

I was privileged to judge the Meat Demonstrations in the first year competition. The demonstration was only a part of the score. Identification of retail cuts of meats, their species, wholesale cut and tenderness level — fifty cuts in all — were the other part of the contest. Pecos County won the meat demonstration contest sponsored by Texas CowBelles and I assisted Dr. Frank Orts in presenting the awards on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Dr. King, a meat specialist who also judged the contests remarked that they were some of the better demonstrations he'd seen in the state 4-H contests. I really enjoyed myself!

WHAT PRICE PAVING? The accident which took the lives of three people and seriously injured two others occurred on a stretch of dirt road only eight miles in length. The road connects pavements. This road which lies just inside the Randall and Armstrong County lines is heavily travelled. It is both a mail route and a bus route. Neither county seems concerned. "Old Timers" in the area say should have been paved long ago. Well, Commissioners, what price paving? Not fair? Define 'fair.'

Man Charged With Rape

A 40-year-old Amarillo man who recently moved to Canyon was charged Tuesday with rape of a child.

Kenneth Ray Pevehouse, who Dist. Atty. Randy Sherrod said is living in a Canyon apartment complex, appeared before Justice of the Peace W. A. Wilson, who set bond at $15,000.

Pevehouse remained in Randall County jail Wednesday in lieu of bond.

Sherrod said Pevehouse is charged with the May 15 incident involving a 12-year-old girl at his home in Amarillo.

Canyon Youths in Tennis Camp

Two Canyon youngsters are among over 250 young tennis players participating in the fifth annual West Texas Tennis Camp this summer on the campus of West Texas State University.

The first session for the camp, under the combined tutelage of WTSU tennis coach David Kent and Amarillo pro Roland Ingram, is currently in session. The second and third sessions of the camp are scheduled for June 22-28, and July 27-August 2.

"Things are going along really well," Kent said of the opening of the camp. "The kids are progressing really nicely.

"We try to do two things in this camp. One, we try to improve each individuals game, and two, we try to have some fun."

The camp is held on WTSU's 14 Laykold courts, the site of the 1976 Missouri Valley Conference tennis championships.

Campers from Canyon attending one of the three sessions include: Trey Kent and Bob Watkin

Commissioners Seek Costs On Changes For New Annex

Randall County commissioners have asked their Amarillo architect to provide estimates on how much it will cost to add several office spaces in the South Amarillo courthouse annex.

Commissioners Monday asked County Judge Woody Pond to contact Architect Art Vaughan for preparation of the estimates. The commission is expected to review the costs at their coming Monday meeting and to authorize change orders to provide for the additional construction.

The new courthouse annex, which is now under construction at Georgia St. and the Canyon E-Way in Amarillo, was originally designed to house only a branch tax office. However, floor space was left by architects for the later addition of offices for sheriff's deputies and a justice of the peace.

Vaughan will also present cost estimates for a change order on the project to add a sprinkler fire fighting system in the building.

Commissioner John Fulgenzi explained to commissioners during their regular session Monday afternoon that Amarillo city codes require the use of the sprinkler type system in the structure.

In other business, commissioners declined to contract for workmen's compensation insurance for the 13 county elected officials.

Local agent George Blackwell again appeared to present a proposal for a workmen's compensation plan which would cost the county about $1300 each year.

The plan would cover elected officials while on county business.

Commissioner Jim Fletcher argued against providing the insurance policy for officials because he said they knew the various benefits available when they sought election to their offices.

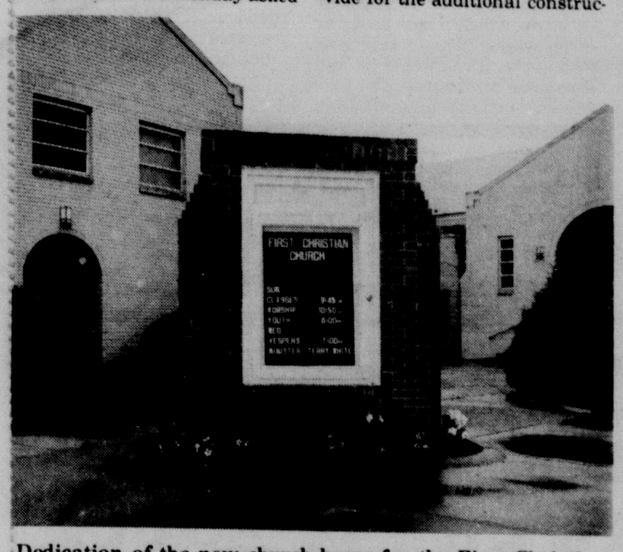
He also argued that the policies would be of little value to county commissioners.

Commissioner Paul Lindsey argued against the proposal, pointing out that the county may be operating under a deficit budget situation this year and should not add further to that deficit at this time.

Commissioner Dee Griffin argued in favor of the coverage.

Commissioners agreed to follow the suggestion of Pond, who recommended the item be tabled until next year.

Commissioners approved the attendance of Dist. Clerk LaQuitta Polvadore at the county and district clerk's conference later this month.



Dedication of the new church home for the First Christian Church is set for this Sunday. The new facility, located at the corner of 4th Ave. and 21st St., was formerly the church home of Central Church of Christ. An ecumenical service of dedication and thanksgiving for the new facility will be held at 5 p.m. Sunday with special music.

Birth Rate Declining?

Will the implied wish for smaller families continue in 1975? Will the U.S. birth rate continue its downward trend?

Percy R. Millard, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Dallas, announced today that the Bureau's monthly population survey in this area will help to answer such questions. Information on birth expectations will be collected here the week of June 16-22 from a sample of area households. The data collected will cover the expectations of women within the next five years. Responses will indicate the future growth and composition of the Nation's population, data vital to planners both in government and private business.

The questions are in addition to the usual ones asked in the monthly survey on employment and unemployment conducted nationwide by the Bureau for the U.S. Department of Labor.

Results of this monthly survey provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation. The April survey showed that employment rose by 240,000 to 84.1 million.

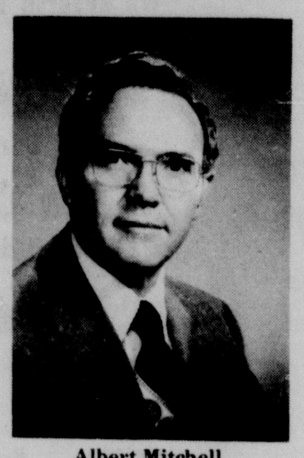
Mitchell Named New Business Dean



Albert Mitchell

West Texas State University Professor of Accounting Albert R. Mitchell has been named the new dean of the School of Business at the WTSU Board of Regents meeting June 6.

The Pueblo, Colo. native has been at West Texas State since 1972, having served on the faculties of the universities of Iowa, Missouri, Eastern New Mexico and Denver.

Mitchell views his job as dean as one working for the university both internally with the faculty and externally with the business community, high schools and junior colleges.

"I think we do have an excellent school," Mitchell observed, "and I want to make people aware of what we do."

Individuals can benefit by attending West Texas State, Mitchell believes because "we have a school and a faculty which is student-oriented. Students can get to know their teachers here."

Mitchell plans to work actively for Coordinating Board acceptance on the newly-proposed Doctorate in Agri-Business, and also for more applied research activities.

The business dean, who actually assumed his duties June 1, "loves the classroom" and will continue teaching one tax class each semester in Amarillo.

Mitchell received his bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado, and his Master of Business Administration degree from the University of Denver. He traveled to Missouri to earn his doctorate in 1966.

The author of numerous articles, Mitchell has also been honored as the 1972 Teacher of the Year by the College of Business Administration, University of Iowa; as a two-year H. B. Earhart Fellow at the University of Missouri, and received the Price Waterhouse Foundation Award at Missouri.

He recently received a prestigious appointment to the Task Force on Tax Programs of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and also serves that organization as a member of the Division of Federal Taxation and of the Responsibilities in Tax Practice Subcommittee.

He is currently a trustee of the American Taxation Association, president-elect of the Canyon Rotary Club and vice-chairman of the WTSU Faculty Council.

VFW Conducts Bike Program

Three members of the Lucius Penick Auxiliary to Post 5681 Veterans of Foreign Wars held their Bike-Alite Safety program Saturday at 12:30 in Conner Park.

The auxiliary reported great participation among the children, but still found many who did not want reflectors on their bikes.

Among those who took advantage of the free reflectors were Ray Halbrook, Dean Halbrook, Randy Rice, Donna Moerbe, Teresa Miller, John Miller, Sandy Gibson, Kim Gibson, Terri Galloway, Merritt Vaughn, Lynda Brotherton, Paul Flynn, Joe Carruth, Cynthia Poff, Bob Eller, Candy Ashford, Charlie O'Donald, Rita Mainville, Gina Mainville, and Andrew Cumby.

Citizens To Meet

The Canyon Senior Citizens will hold their regular "pot luck" supper tonight at 7 p.m. at the Community Center.

Discussion will center around the results of the recent garage sale. Games will be provided as usual.

Real Estate Act Seminar Topic

A symposium explaining the responsibilities and regulations surrounding the Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974, to be effective June 20, will be held at West Texas State University June 17.

Sponsored by the WTSU Adult Continuing Education Institute, the symposium will be from 7 to 9:30 p.m. June 17 in Room 101, WTSU University Complex South. Registration will be at the door beginning at 6:30 p.m.; the fee is $3.

The Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act of 1974 is to be administered by the US Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and involves two forms, the Disclosure/Settlement Statement and the Federal Truth in Lending Statement. These forms will be used in real property transactions, and are to provide the purchaser of the real property with all closing cost information.

This act covers all federally-related mortgage loans, and will be of concern to real estate and real estate lending agencies, banks, abstract companies, saving and loan corporations and mortgage loan agencies.

Summer Program "In Swing"

Approximately 200 youth and 230 Canyon adults are participating in the Canyon Summer Recreation Program sponsored jointly by the city and West Texas State University.

As well as an Adult Fitness Program, community members are involved in Men's Slowpitch Softball League and a Co-Recreational Volleyball League.

Canyon youngsters are taking part in swimming, golf, arts and crafts, cheerleading, twirling, tennis, archery, bowling, tumbling, trampoline, track and field, basketball, and general physical fitness.

Dr. A. J. Luquette, physical education instructor at WTSU, is the director of the program, and, for the first time is incorporating the use of WT students for teaching positions in the program. The students receive college credit for teaching in the program.

The city of Canyon donated approximately $3,000 to fund the program. This along with enrollment fees pays the 18 WT student teachers.

According to Dr. Luquette, the program had to be started earlier than he would have liked, but it was mandatory it be started the same time as the regular first summer session at WT.

Commenting on the summer youth program, Dr. Luquette said, "It gives an opportunity for the kids to maintain some physical conditioning through the summer months." "The number of youth in the program is growing," he added.

Girl Born To Keith Keelings

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Keeling of 1005 8th Ave. announce the June 8 birth of a baby girl, Mandy Michelle, at Palo Duro Hospital. The baby girl weighed 6 pounds 10¼ ounces and measured 19 inches at birth.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sternenberg of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Keeling also of Canyon.

Hail, Wind & Rain Hit Siesta

By DORIS MCKEE

THIS HAS BEEN cleanup week here at Siesta. Seems Saturday night we got lots and lots of hail, wind and rain. Damages ran high throughout the Park. There was lots of broken windows, damaged siding and roofs, some water damages and trees, flowers and shrubs stripped and beaten back. All the gardens in the Park are no longer. Most of them were beat-off at the ground. All in all, it seemed bad, but myself, I'm sure most everyone else are very thankful it wasn't any worse.

The boy scouts took advantage of the swimming pool last week and had a swimming party instead of their usual weekly meeting. They did some diving and had some races. Everyone seemed to really have a good time. Those attending were Tod McKee, Tracy Walls, Marty Hoffman, Shannon Jones, Paul Qualls, Roger Robertson and Randy Jones. James Jones, leader and Roscoe Shipley, assistant leader also participated.

MR. AND MRS. Jack Buckner who did live at 120 Siesta, have bought a lot, and now live at 129 La Fiesta. Welcome to Ownersville.

SHARON JONES HAD lunch and visited with Linda Shaffer (ex-resident) last week. Linda had to bring Kenneth to the airport so, she called Sharon. Linda said that they just loved it on the farm.

* * *

WE WOULD LIKE to extend our deepest sympathy to Barbara Parault and her children, P. L., Jr. and Barbara Gail. Pete Parault of 252 La Fiesta died last week of injuries suffered earlier in a fall at Harrington Station plant of Southwestern Public Service Co. located about 3 miles northeast of Amarillo. A fund for his family has been set up at the Western National Bank in Amarillo.

* * *

A WEEK AGO Sunday Raylene, Paul, Paul Jr., Guy and Jamie Qualls of 226 La Fiesta went to Friona to celebrate Mrs. Dane Qualls 60th birthday. Paul, his dad Dane and both his brothers, Jerry and Jackie were there. Raylene took a birthday cake and got her mother-in-law a red pants suit. Everyone had a good time. Jerry and Jackie had spent some time here with Paul and family earlier that week end. Jerry left Sunday afternoon to return to his home at Fort Worth.

* * *

WOULD LIKE TO wish Oleta Potter of 135 La Fiesta a speedy recovery. She has been in the hospital for several days.

* * *

RONNIE, LISA, RICHARD and Lana McCarter of 232 La Fiesta spent last week with their grandparents in Clovis, New Mexico. They are the children of Carrol and Lois McCarter.

WOULD LIKE TO say "welcome" to the Park, to several new people, Cecil and Margaret Evans of 118 Siesta, J. D. and Dot Adams of 121 Siesta, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jones of 256 La Fiesta, Mr. and Mrs. David Singleton of 152 Siesta and Don Altaway, Anglo McClain and Kenneth Davis of 147 Siesta. We hope each of you will be very happy here at Siesta.

SEEMS JON AND Diana Hoffman made a flying trip to Kansas over the week end. They left Saturday afternoon and drove to Kiowa, Kansas where they spent the night with Jon's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoffman. Sunday morning Jon and Diana drove over to Wichita where they met Diana's folks, Carlos and Loiese Cantrell of Elsmore. They had a short visit and lunch, after which Carlos and Loiese, along with Marty and Christy Hoffman left for Elsmore. Marty and Christy plan to spend the summer there with their grandparents. Jon and Diana visited a short time with Faye and Charles Diehl, then returned to Jon's folks at Kiowa. After a quick sandwich they started for home. They saw and drove in quite a bit of bad weather, but managed to make it home without any problems.

EUNICE AND BARNEY Rinehart went to Marietta, Oklahoma last Wednesday morning and did some fishing. At least they "tried," Eunice said, "but the fish just weren't biting." Thursday evening they drove over to Vernon, Texas where they spent the night with Guinn and Gladys, (Eunice's sister) Davenport. On Friday, they returned home. Eunice promises that before long she is going to get me a real fish (or fishy) story.

SEEMS MARCIE, JASON and Clinton Weeter were able to spend last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Langley of Phillips. They are the children of Larry and Norma Weeter.

* * *

I ALSO NOTICED that Sherry and Perry Benham are visiting with the Felton Conner's family. They are back here to spend some time with their dad, David Benham.

* * *

FAYE RISNER HAD a real nice week end. She and Nita and Bobby Hudson of Canyon went to Raton to the races. Faye said they really enjoyed the outing and that the weather was really nice.

* * *

PAUL, RAYLENE, GUY and Jamie Qualls took Paul Jr. to Camp Summerlife this week end. Raylene said it was really beautiful up there in New Mexico. Paul, Jr. will be there for two weeks.

* * *

ON FRIDAY MORNING myself, Tod and DeAnn and a friend, Dusty West went to Lubbock. My mother Mrs. E. M. Weaver was having a reunion at her home. She had my Dad's sisters and sister-in-laws and any of their families that could attend. On Thursday, June 5th Vera Weaver of Brownwood, Ethel Dollar of Amarillo and Jettie & Shirley Green of Pampa arrived. On Friday, June 6th, my brood, Maude and Katie Weaver of Alamogordo, New Mexico and Ruby Patterson along with Debbie Dollar of Amarillo arrived. Saturday morning, June 7th, Winfred, Paula and Roger Dollar and a friend Allan Turner all of Amarillo and Bill Patterson of Amarillo and his daughter Holli of Springer, New Mexico arrived. Mrs. May Patterson of Lubbock joined the bunch for lunch on Saturday. Mrs. Alice Killingsworth of Lubbock visited Saturday morning, but left before lunch. All totaled there were twenty for lunch and seventeen for supper on Saturday. There was lots and lots of good food and visiting. Everyone had left to return to their homes by noon on Sunday. It was a very warm and wonderful get-together.

I WOULD LIKE very much to make a few suggestions. First off, it would be a very good idea to leave a key to your home with a next door neighbor when you go on a trip, whether it be for a day or for weeks. It could save your home. Also if you would fix and keep some cardboards to fit your windows and a staple gun handy you could save on damages. Always keep a flashlight, a battery operated radio, some candles and matches in a convenient place. Oh yes, please don't forget to draw up several bottles of water to keep at all times.

Guess it is time to cap the ole' pen for this week, so keep on reading.

Thought for this week, "A friend in need is greatly appreciated."

See ya.

Bahais Observe Race Unity Day

The Baha'i's of Canyon observed Race Unity Day Sunday, June 8 at 2 p.m. in Conner Park. Race Unity Day is set aside by the Baha'i's in the United States as a day to promote the essential oneness of mankind, as this is the pivotal principle of the Baha'i' Faith.

A short presentation was given by Gary Paradiso on Race Unity Day. In his talk he pointed out that "all humanity as a whole must become aware of the oneness of mankind, and appreciate diversity of race and culture before a foundation of peace in the world can occur." He pointed out that in order for this unity to prevail in the world the hearts of men must change. He ended by quoting Baha'u'llah, Prophet-Founder of the Baha'i' Faith, who said over 100 years ago, "The earth is but one country and mankind its citizens," and "Close your eyes to racial differences, and welcome all with the light of oneness."

Membership Meet Set By Heritage

The Heritage Woman's Club will meet at 7 p.m. Monday night at the home of Mrs. Larry Brandon, 1102 Creekmere.

The theme of the meeting will be "Membership," and an orientation to membership in the Texas Federation of Women's Club will be presented by way of a skit. The skit will be presented by members and will center around the seven program areas of the Federation, conservation, art, international affairs, home life, education, and Texas heritage.

Prospective members have been invited to the meeting. Mrs. John Plank is president of the Heritage Woman's Club which is a Federated club.

"Whopping Success" For Senior Citizens

The Senior Citizen's Association garage sale was a "whopping success," according to W.E. Miller, treasurer for the association. Approximately $1,500 was raised by the sale held at the old First Christian Church this past week end.

Another garage sale will be scheduled for August at the Church "because so many items came in at the last minute before they could be sorted," Miller said.

"We want to thank all the people who donated items and helped to make this fund raising effort so successful," Miller said.
